

Directions: Choose a community health worker to research. Fill in the information you find about the health worker you study.

1. What health worker did you study?

2. Where do these health workers do their work?

3. What are the job responsibilities?

4. What kind of education do they need to do their job?

5. What kind of equipment do they use on the job?

6. What other interesting things did you learn about this job?
